

25 March 2010

Dear members of the ELN, with this newsletter we want to inform you about new input regarding the website-content.

1. Molecular Pathogenesis of Leukemia: Insights and Challenges, September 16-18th, 2010
Frankfurt, Germany

The Symposium is organized by Hubert Serve and Rolf Marschalek from the University of Frankfurt and Rose Ann Padua from Paris. It has been designed to provide the participants with cutting-edge information on Oncogenic Signaling, Transcriptional Control and Epigenetics as well as Leukemia Stem Cells. The topic will be covered by international recognized experts in the field and is supported by the European Leukemia Net.

Further information and a flyer for download are available at the website www.leukemia-net.org – Events

2. Report of the workshop “Risk Based Approach in Clinical Trials”

The “Road Map Initiative” is a collaboration of research organisations including the European Leukemia Net which has the aim to contribute to a modification of the European Clinical Trials Directive. It is very important to particularly strengthen the position of investigator-initiated trials in this group. The third workshop on behalf of the ‘Road Map Initiative for Clinical Research in Europe’ about Risk Based Approach in Clinical Trials has had taken place on 18 January 2010 in Barcelona, Spain.

Please have a look at the report and the agenda of this workshop at http://www.leukemia-net.org/content/international\_trials/workshops/the\_road\_map\_initiative/

3. EUTOS CML Registry

The EUTOS for CML Registry will collect baseline, treatment and outcome data on patients with CML in Europe by implementing and enlarging the current European CML Registry.

Online access to the EUTOS – eCRF – System is available now.
