

Report from TMF-Meeting on personal data issues in European medical research projects

T. Müller (Munich / Germany)

Abstract:

Within the EU, processing of personal data is subject to legislation as prescribed in Directive 95/46/EC of the European Commission. Following an introduction to the key concepts, the current situation regarding personal data in European medical research is described and various strategies that have been employed to accommodate the divergent national legislation are discussed.